

GET WELL. GET PAID.

GET CASH JUST FOR GETTING A HEALTH SCREENING

Health screenings are important. That's why your employer included the Wellness Benefit Rider on your insurance policy from Transamerica.

It pays you a cash benefit once per calendar year when you receive a qualified screening like cardiac exams and blood tests. It's a reward for taking care of your health — and helps pay you back for some of your premiums, too.

MEET MARIA

Maria knows cancer runs in her family, so she diligently goes for her screening every year. Both of her Transamerica insurance policies included the Wellness Benefit Rider, so she got paid $50 cash from both policies for a total of $100. Wellness Benefit amount may vary, based on the plan design selected by your employer.
